Mr. D. S. Frackelton,
Macaby Temple,
Fenton, Mich.

Dear Mr. Frackelton:

I thank you for your letter of October 17th. Like all religious papers, THE PRESBYTERIAN is having a hard time just at present. Your plan of having the membership better informed is to my mind worth consideration. I think I will print your letter very soon in the hope that it will awaken some attention.

Yours very sincerely,

Dear Friends:

I did not know until this morning the exact date of your Twentieth Anniversary. If it is possible I will get out to call on you this evening or tomorrow, probably tomorrow.

I want to congratulate you on the marvelous life you have had together. I know of no couple that has been happier in heart than you in spite of the many hard things which you have had to bear. I honor you both exceedingly. Winifred has fought poor health with a courage that has been remarkable and good old H. R. has stood by like a rock. This brings congratulations from Mrs. Robinson and me. I will see you personally very soon.

Most cordially yours,

WCR*E

Dear Mr. Fox:

I hope you can forgive the delay in replying to your letter of September 10th. I referred the matter to one more competent than I and he has sent me the enclosed letter which may aid you in the matter you requested.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Ford:

I am sorry that I cannot make it possible to go to the Elders Association which you kindly suggest. Mr. Cole called me up but I had to decline because of other things. Perhaps at a future time I may be able to serve you. Thank you for your interest.

Very cordially yours,

Gentlemen:

I enclose you check for $3.00. Please to send one copy of "The Flower of the Heather" to each of the following:

Mrs. Richard Rastall,
5153 Jarvis Avenue,
La Canada, Calif.

Mrs. Harry H. Clifford,
3371 Superior Park Drive,
Cleveland Heights, Ohio

I enclose you copy of the "Midnight Cry". I attended the opening meeting at the Tabernacle here, and was disappointed in the presentation made by Mr. Karl F. Wittman who seemed to make healing a reward for conversion. He stressed the point of divine healing more than that of repentance and forgiveness.

(2) I have read recently an article setting forth quite clearly why the Christian cannot expect divine healing now as they did in the days of the Savior and the Apostles. Was this article in the Presbyterian? If so, please to give me the date.

(1) Have you any knowledge of the results of Whittmans evangelistic meetings.

(3) Please to tell me the best book you have on Christian Service, one that gives the life of Mrs. Eddy and the present beliefs of the Society. There is a book, "Mary Baker Eddy", of course this may only be her life & not beliefs of Society

(4) Also, what have you on the present beliefs of the Seventh Day Adventist?

Yours sincerely,

Dear Dr. Robinson:

At the meeting of our Executive Committee of the Ruling Elders' Association of Chester Presbytery, held in the Witherspoon Building ~~yesterday~~ this afternoon, plans were made for our annual meeting to be held in the East Whiteland Church, Frazer, morning and afternoon, October 29th, 1931. With very gratifying unanimity, I was requested to write to you and ask you to be one of the speakers (in the morning or afternoon, as you may elect). There will be two speakers at each session. Harold Laird will be one of them. We would like you to speak on

"How may the Eldership attain a greater efficiency
in the service of God, the Church and Humanity?"

(or some kindred subject having much the same teaching in view) I presume you would be allowed at least a half hour. While the acceptance of this invitation will not add materially to your financial resources, yet it would be an opportunity for some very practical advice to a body of men who need it very badly.

It is scarcely necessary for me to say that it would be a great pleasure to me, personally, and to us all to have you with us. I will see you soon, perhaps, and will give you any information you may need.

If you can be with us, will you kindly inform John H. Cole, Coatesville, Pa., who is our Secretary and has charge of the program. Please let him know whether you would rather come in the morning or afternoon. In all probability, we shall have a larger attendance in the afternoon -- almost surely over one hundred ~~and~~ elders, and I am hoping that you will find that time convenient for you.

You need not reply to me, but kindly give Cole early information.

Very sincerely yours,

H. P. Ford

Dear Dr. Robinson:

I have not had the pleasure of meeting you, and so I will here present my compliments and impose upon you by asking a favor right away.

The new Chinese government regulations which went into effect September 1 in connection with Christian schools has given considerable concern. We have had several solicitous inquiries.

Dr. Scott, executive secretary of the Foreign Board, meets the situation very intelligently in an article, which we are very anxious to have appear in the Presbyterian. You will note that I use the term "anxious"; it is just that.

Of course, you will understand that it will be exclusive to you.

Are you willing thus to help?

Very sincerely

My dear Dixon:

I hope your memory can jump over thirty years and recall one who was the pastor of your youth.

I am very glad and proud to know of your achievements. I am reminded again by seeing an interview with you printed in the Philadelphia Public Ledger. It struck me as very excellent. I could not but think how greatly your mother would rejoice. She was indeed a good woman and I prized her very highly. I have not seen your aunt, Mrs. Smith, for a long time though I had a letter from her husband two or three years ago.

Please accept my congratulations and good wishes. It would be pleasant to know more intimately the details of your life.

Yours very cordially,

September 12, 1931.

Dear Mr. Fox:

I do not recall the article to which you refer relating to divine healing. The people in the office also fail to remember it. The best work on that matter of which I have any knowledge is one written by B. B. Warfield which has to do with apostolic healing and also the matter of the continuing healing which some have claimed to possess. Unfortunately, the name escapes my mind at this moment and I do not have a copy of it. I will refer your whole letter to my son who can write you giving information which is not at my hand.

I know nothing of Mr. Carl F. Wittman. I am sorry I can be of no more service to you as I would be glad to aid you.

Yours very truly,

August 21, 1931.

Dear Mr. Fazel:

I have your letter of August 18th. We thank you for your sympathy for us in the loss of Miss Alexander. We have not yet gone through all the papers that Miss Alexander had piled away and I do not know whether your manuscript is there or not. She had some here in the office and some at her home. Miss McKinney who has been on her vacation has been looking over the papers. She will return on Monday and if your manuscript is found we will send it to you. I thank you for your encouraging word.

MY DEAR BRETHREN:-

Being away on my vacation in the Rockies, I did not learn ~~nn~~ that my sub.was due until I returned on last Friday. Sorry,and enclose Two dollars herewith.

Worse still,I knew nothing of the departure of our dear Miss.Clara A.Alexander,for the same reason. What a loss! to us; what a gain,what JOY in heaven! She was so very kind and considerate of others;forgetful of self. Though I never met her,I felt as if I knew her.

In this connection,-permit me to ask you to look in her files for some Mss.,typewritten on letter size paper and originally bound with tape;some 35 Anecdotes of my experiences as a Missionary in Okla.and Indian Territories before statehood. She printed seven or eight of these,and you sent me $15.oo in payment; then they ceased to appear for so long, I concluded she had used all she cared to,so I sent her the return postage for those unpublished; but she did not return them,which made me think she intended to continue using them, as she had said she would. I think I sent postage twice,but never got the Mss. and now she is gone;and perhaps the Mss. is lost. Please look this up. If you wish to use other of my Anecdotes,go ahead. If not,please return what's left.

You are surely printing a fine Christian weekly,and I like to read it.

Most sincerely your brother,

Rev. John H. Fazel H.R.

Dear Doctor Robinson:

No, I was not thinking of Church service in connection with the article for The Westminster Uniform Lesson Teacher when I asked you for an article on "TODAY'S SERVICE." The fact that the article is to be used in the issue of the magazine in which we have a lesson on Stewardship of Life, will show you that we are thinking of what we are to do to-day. What are the duties that come to us? How may we perform these duties? We are stewards of the life God has given or committed to us. How are we planning to give the best account of our stewardship?

An article of 1000 words. Manuscript due June 1, 1932.

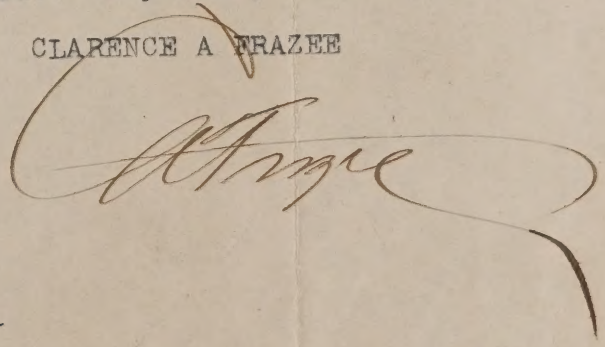
Dear Doctor:

I read in today's paper that Miss Clara A Alexander has passed to her great reward.

Please accept my sincere sympathy at your great loss, For I know she will be sadly missed.

Miss Alexander was kind enough to occasionally publish a peem of mine, and thus send it on it's way to your great audience.

I take the liberty of attaching a "Requiem". Use it or not as you may see fit, But I certainly have much appreciated her kindness in the past, and her cheerful smile and patience whenever I had the pleasure of calling upon her.

Yours very truly


CLARENCE A FRAZEE
